

Workshop on Good Manufacturing Practices in Aerospace and Defence Industry

IEEMA conducted a One Day In-house Workshop for Center For Advanced Systems, DRDO, Hyderabad on 14th November 2018 at their premises. The theme of the workshop was “Good Manufacturing Practices in Aerospace and Defence Industry”.

The Objective of the workshop was to share knowledge on practicing good manufacturing techniques for achieving zero defects, high quality products, delivery, safety, morale and productivity by implementation of good manufacturing practices on shop floor. The workshop was attended by 50 participants consisting of DRDO scientists (from Scientist B to Scientist E level), Manager, Sr Manager from Defence PSU like BDL, Brahmos Aerospace etc, having background in Quality management, Project Management, Production, Integration and Testing etc.

Distribution Transformer Division Meeting

IEEMA Distribution Transformer Division meeting was held on 14th November 2018 at IEEMA Mumbai Office. The meeting was chaired by Mr. Alok Agrawal, Chairman Distribution Transformer division. The meeting was attended by 20 members from 19 member organisations. Mr. Ajay Sanghi, Vice Chairman, Distribution Transformer division and Mr. Pawan Jain, Past Chairman, Distribution Transformer Division also participated in the meeting. The important points discussed during the meeting was on Transformer Quality

Control Order, Nominations of young expert for IEC and BIS activities from the division, increasing the membership of DT division, to organise a standalone conference on DT, similar to TRAFOTECH.

Mr. H.C. Sharma, Head (Projects and Engineering), and Mr. Yogesh Gupta, DGM(Maintenance and Planning) from TPDDL was invited during the division meeting for discussions on controlling the failure rate of distribution transformers. Shri Sharma and his colleague shared insights on TPDDL initiatives on automation systems, safety issues, site testing, proper earthing, condition based monitoring systems, quality inspections and proper installations in bringing down the failure rate of DTs to 0.5% to ensure reliable power supply.

Workshop on GST Annual Return, Audit & Reconciliation

To sensitize industry members and other stakeholders on GST, IEEMA conducted a Workshop on GST Annual Return, Audit & Reconciliation in New Delhi on 16th November 2016. The program was attended by 100 participants from the business community.

Mr. Dheeraj Rastogi, IRS, Joint Secretary, GST Council was invited for the inaugural session and to interact with the participants. Reputed faculties CA Bimal Jain, CA Gaurav Gupta, CA Chirag Mehta and CA Mandar Telang who were a part of the GST committee of the ICAI took their respective sessions on the subject.

Capital Good Summit

The Department of Heavy Industries and Confederation of Industries organised Capital Good Summit on November 16 in Delhi. The theme of the summit was Opportunities for Capital Goods Industry- Growth Drivers and Role of Technology. Discussion on latest trends in technology and future demand outlook took place during the summit. IEEMA was represented by Mr RK Chugh, Senior Vice President, IEEMA and Mr Sunil Misra, Director General, IEEMA for plenary session on Demand Mapping for CG in Energy and Power Sector and Demand Mapping for Capital Goods in Steel, Railways and Emerging Sectors respectively.

IEEMA in Social Media

LinkedIn -
<https://www.linkedin.com/company/follow-ieema/>

Twitter -
<https://twitter.com/tweetieema>

Facebook –
<https://www.facebook.com/followIEEMA/>

Youtube -
<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCsqCSHFS9Y2w9DZHO p8dMzQ>